Official Event Filming and Media Policy

Event: Día de los Muertos 2026
Venue: Kelowna Event Centre
Organizer: Latin Voices Society

1. Policy Statement
The Latin Voices Society maintains an exclusive media policy for the Día de los Muertos celebration to protect the event's atmosphere, the privacy of our attendees and performers, and the commercial rights associated with our cultural programming.

2. Authorized Media & Exclusive Videographer
The Latin Voices Society has designated and hired an Official Videographer & Photographers for the Event. These vendors hold the exclusive right to capture all professional video footage and commercial-grade photography on site.

Any video recording device—including video cameras, cameras with detachable lenses used for video — brought into the event is considered unauthorized equipment for video capture and must cease recording immediately upon request.

3. Filming & Photography Notice to Attendees & Performers
By entering the event premises, attendees, vendors, and performers acknowledge and agree to the following:

- Notice of Photography: Official videographers and photographers authorized by Latin Voices Society will be recording throughout the event.
- Consent & Release: Entrance into the venue constitutes consent to be photographed, filmed, or audio-recorded for promotional, archival, educational, and social media use by Latin Voices Society without financial compensation.
- Performer & Stage Rights: Latin Voices Society retains sole, exclusive official recording and broadcast rights for all stage performances. Unapproved commercial distribution or sale of stage performance recordings is strictly prohibited.

4. Enforcement & Inquiries

- Latin Voices Society reserves the right to request any individual engaging in unauthorized video recording, live streaming, or disruptive media practices to cease recording immediately or leave the premises.
- Questions or Media Inquiries? Please speak directly with event staff or contact us at info@latinvoices.ca.
